Styles Of 1980

The styles of clothing in 1979 included everything from tight satin disco pants to baggy farm overalls. Pleated pants with straight legs were very popular. High-heeled wooden clogs or spike-heeled sandals were a common sight around school. Probably the most typical outfit worn by the FCHS student was a warm, plaid flannel shirt and a pair of Levi jeans. T-shirts could be found with just about anything on them. They were commonly worn with gym shorts in warm weather.

Senior Wills

SHERRI BAKER: I will the great times to Darrell Bailey. I will some of the good times in office practice to Theresa Collins and wish that the remaining class have as much fun as I had at FCHS.

DANNY BARNARD: I leave my boxing gloves to Earline New; also my water bed.

BARRY BARNFIELD: I will my old green to Robert Tucker so he will have something to work on every day.

GENE BARTON: I will my ability to power off quarts between classes to Alvin Legg and I will my cooler with the roached lid to Bently Bruce if he needs it again next year.

JEFF BASHORE: I leave my place in the parking lot to anyone who can find it! I leave my driving ability to Greg Gould and my car to Mike Richards, who needs it badly.

SHERRI BEESON: To Keith Beeson I will my ability to stay out of detention. To Cathy Holbert I will my ability to get into trouble and back out, usually with ease, also the ability not to lie, but not to tell the truth, to stay out of trouble.

CINDY BEVIS: I will my funny sayings to Melinda Mattox, because she always laughed at everything I said. I will my driving ability to Lisa DeWitt (I think she knows why). To my sister Kelley, I leave all the good times and good memories.

ALAN BLAND: I will to Tom Young my ability to go to classes, also I will to Martha Spurgeon my locker.

JANET BRAND: I will my maturity and intelligence to the class of '83. I will my toughness to Tillman Adams.

BENTLY BRUCE: To Gene Barton and Steve Young I leave my ability to show up for class. To Mark "Tibbs", "Little Bruce, my ability to stay between the ditches.

BRAD BRYAN: I will my 750 pounds of power in my legs to John Bishop; my football shoes to John Griswold and my awards to Kevin Wise.

PEGGY BUCK: I will to Todd Davis all the beaters he can lick; the poster on my bathroom door to Lisa Mason. All my fightin' words to Kevin Wise; most of all I leave all the happiness a person can have to Kammy.

TONYA BUMPASS: I will all my good weekend fun to my sister Carla and her friends. I will my height to Mike Short so people can see him in a crowd; to Erika Dickey all my Wednesday nights. I leave my driving ability (while intoxicated) to Paula Hosselton, Lisa Wilkerson and Sherri Baker.

RANDY CAMPBELL: I will my sideburns to Kevin Wise in hopes he will someday grow whiskers. Also my ability to be carried off the football field on a stretcher to Kevin. To Van Griffith and Albert Andrews I will my famous submarine sandwiches.

BECKY CASTLEBERRY: To my sister Libby I leave a lot of good wishes. To Sheila I leave all the hall passes. I leave my smokes to the 4 Muskys. To Trace I leave 2nd part of my senior year; and to Mark I leave my love.

VICKIE CHAMNESS: I will my locker (no.18) to anyone who wants it and my "coolness" to Tammy Williams, who gave it to me in the first place.

BEV CHAPMAN: I will my locker, which I never had to Mary Arnold. I will my writing ability to Jackie Chapman, who is always complaining about it; and I thank Peggy Durst for being such a friend and coach to me throughout my high school years.

CRYSTAL CLARK: I will the good times in the lake and at the drive in to Sheila Moats hoping that she will not get caught in her underwear again. To my brother Doug I will the best of luck for his senior year. To Regina Cooper I will my brains, to Dianne, Priscilla and Mary I leave many wild, crazy memories.

TOM CLARK: I will my determination to make it through school to all those who don't or didn't.

SUNNY CUSHMAN: I will my year writing the teen column to anyone who is lucky enough to get it. I will my great times in chemistry to Erika Dickey. I will my acrobatic ability to Melinda Mattox and my last, but not least, I leave my good times at FCHS, my happiness and my love forever to Jerry Ellis.

JANIS K. DERKSEN: I leave my ability to get to school as often as I am well to Scott Hutcheson. I leave my wierdness to wear crazy clothes to anyone who will take it and I leave my great personality to all people who forget to smile a lot.

TERRI DINSMORE: I will my hamburger pies to Vickie Chamness and Peggy Buck since Vickie was so hungry at the time and Peggy loves them so much. All my good grades I leave to Paula Wilson, cause she needs them, all my study halls to Diana Smith so she can sleep and all my love to Jeff Simpson.

MARY DOZIER: I will a great year at MPHS to those who did not have a chance to be there.

CHERYL DRAPER: To Angie Padgett I will Mike Wood. To those people who just can't make it to first hour I leave my ability to park sideways in the parking lot. To Chairlie Miller I leave memories of our 2½ minute dance lessons—disco, no less, last, but not least, I leave my good times at FCHS, my happiness and my love forever to Jerry Ellis.

CHERYL DUNSCOMBE: I will my new house where I will be living this summer anytime to Lloyd Ziegler, Martha Jordan, Suzanne McGill, Pam Garrett, Lissa Hoffee, Lisa Dunscombe, Val Porterfield, Janet Joslin, Kim Williams and whoever else I left out, for partying purposes. To future FCHS'ers I will my ability to last all the way through four years.

ALLEN DUNN: I will my locker to my brother Denny. My ability to cheat and get away with it to Gary Moore. I will my ability to get along with Mrs. Harriss to Scott Hutcheson cause he'll need it!

SILAS ECKLEBERRY: I will my locker to Denny Dunn; my cruisin' ability to the new drivers; my brain to science and my body to the girls.

MARK ELLIOTT: I will my pencil and calculator to Debbie Blackford; the city of Mt. Vernon I leave to Marilyn Garrett. I will Sheila and Beth Moats one case of toilet paper to get back at me for all the times I've TP'ed them.

DEBBIE ELLIS: I will my ability to get along with Mr. Irby to my sister Lisa and hope she has a better time at FCHS than anyone.

RANDY ELLIS: I will my ability to hit a baseball to Van Griffith; my great times at FFA convention to Kevin Wise; my ability to break my arm to Todd Davis, since he doesn't know how; my tight end ability to John Tullis; finally my weekends with the ladies to Sam Johnson.

JODY ENGELKES: To my cousin I give a big mouth and to her friends I leave an ear, to Lisa Mason all of my good luck.

DARRYL EWING: I will my running ability to Lindy Simposn and Pat Harris, they need it.

DAVID EWING: I will my ability to get roached to Jim Brock and Gregg Edwards. I leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Janet Joslin.

MICHELLE EYMAN: I will Marsha Staley all the "high" times in 2nd, 3rd, & 5th hours to Larry Eckleberry I will my shoulder; to the gang out front at 5th hour I will the ability to find what they need and then use it in good health!!!

KEVIN FARMER: I will my height to Mike Short, my jumping ability to Gregg Edwards and most of all I will my extra cans of Skoal to Kevin Wise.

Band

The band took on a new look this year. Mr. Harold Irby, the new director, concentrated on his marching band, which put on nice half-time shows at football games and marched at SIU's homecoming. A squad of flag girls greatly added to the appearance of the marching band.

Seven students, Lisa Wilkerson, Tammi Wilson, Jo Lynn Bunting, Lisa Ellis, Ron Mills and Angie Mills participated in District Band at the campus of EIU at Charleston. Ron and Angie also participated in IMEA All-State band in Chicago.

The concert band received a First rating at contest, which was held at SIU in April.

The Ski Trip Was A New Experience

The tradition of taking a senior trip to Six Flags was broken by the graduating class of 1980. They voted to take a ski trip to Paoli Peaks in southern Indiana. Despite some bruised and sore bodies, the trip was a success.

1. The ski team of Keith Heflin, Mike Hetzel, Jeff Gruner and Silas Eckleberry posed for a picture after conquering the slopes.
2. Jeff Mattox took an unexpected rest.
3. Sherri Baker.
4. Kim Kakac proudly skied past the scattered bodies of fallen skiers. (The body on the ground is Marilyn Garrett.)
5. Bryan Nordmann Chivalrously helped Lori Merrill up.
6. Cindy Bevis, George Xanders, Jeff Stanley and Kelley Bevis prepared themselves for the slopes.
7. Teresa Smith

Closing The Locker Of 1980

As the class of eighty closed it's lockers for the last time they looked back and realized that this was an important year. In the news we have seen American hostages held in Iran, while Soviets invaded Afghanistan. Talk of reinstating the draft and drafting women was heard. Vietnamese and Cuban refugees swarmed to our country. The Winter Olympics were held in Lake Placid, N.Y.; however, the United States led the boycott of the Summer games in Moscow. Another presidential campaign took place to see who would lead us for the next term.

Close to home, the drinking age was raised from 18 to 21. Disco died on the dance floor, but is still going strong in the roller rink.

At school, the freshmen football team broke one of our long-standing traditions by having an undefeated season. Lunch hours were shortened to 35 minutes. The senior trip was changed from a night at Six Flags to a day of skiing at Poli Peaks. The detention system was revised and the news of girls fighting shocked the town. Through it all, the rate of inflation rose, while the economy fell.

The Reflector staff hopes that this book will help you to recall memories of 1980; however, the memories each individual has cannot be recorded in a yearbook. So, as one of Fairfield's anonymous philosophers put it, "Hang on to them thar memories or else they'll squirm away from ya just like a greased pig!"
